SDNA Convention

Welcome to Deadwood and the 128th annual South Dakota Newspaper Association Convention!

This marks the first time an SDNA convention has been held in Deadwood. Our convention theme plays off the rich history and tradition that Deadwood offers and looks forward to great opportunities for revenue and enhancements for every newspaper.

We have a great program planned. One that has a little of everything for everyone.

Peter Wagner gets us started Friday morning with some fantastic ideas you can take home and implement next week. Ideas that will make you money and spruce up your newspaper.

On Friday afternoon we will hear about exciting, new revenue opportunities for newspapers that involve mobile texting and online advertising. Yes, it's a changing marketplace and we can be at the forefront to capitalize on these opportunities.

At our Friday night banquet we will recognize the recipient of this year's public's right to know Eagle Award and we will hear from Brian Mehman, a local resident who will inspire us with his words.

Don't sleep in Saturday morning or you will miss the chance to win a Norman Rockwell "Country Editor" print to be given away at the annual SDNA Business Meeting.

After our noon awards luncheon we will learn about database-reporting techniques that any newspaper can use, plus we have an excellent opportunity for roundtable discussions.

Again, thank you for participating in our annual convention and enjoy!

- Hollie Stalder, SDNA President

The origins of SDNA date back to July 26, 1882, when a group of editors assembled in Huron to organize what was to be known as the Huron Land District Press Association. With statehood in 1889, it quickly became a state-wide association.

Like Deadwood and the northern Black Hills, our association has a rich tradition and proud past. We have an even brighter future, despite all the pundits and so-called experts who say newspapers are on their way out. Nothing could be further from the truth, and South Dakota's 130 daily and weekly newspapers are a testament to that fact.

It is your participation and support that makes our association strong and vibrant. Thank you for all you do.

While you are here, please don't hesitate to ask a Board member or SDNA staff member if you have any questions or requests. We want to make sure you have an enjoyable and educational convention. It's a great time to recharge and reconnect with friends and peers.

Friday Night Fun

We hope you enjoy the casino fun after our banquet Friday evening. Instead of the traditional hospitality suite, we will gather in the casino for some gaming fun. The Black Jack and Slots tourneys we've arranged are free to convention attendees. Plus, there will be some prizes as well. Our thanks to Brad Slater and the Rapid City Journal for their sponsorship of the post-banquet casino fun.

Thanks for the Support

Speaking of sponsorships, our sincere thanks to all those folks and organizations who help sponsor our convention. Without their support, our convention wouldn't be possible. Be sure to thank: American Profile, Basin Electric, Metro Creative Graphics, Rapid City Journal, Rocket Printing, S.D. Community Foundation, S.D. Electric Utility Companies and S.D. Rural Electric Association.

Silent Auction

This will be the fourth SDNA silent auction. We encourage everyone to participate. Thank you to everyone who donated items for the auction. Auction bidding will conclude Saturday noon.
